

- The Welsh Government has shown 3 possible approaches for how to design a fairer Council Tax system. We want to ask you about your appetite for reform.
- The Welsh Government has described when the changes could be made to the Council Tax bands and tax-rates. Again, we want to ask about your appetite for reform.
- Do you agree there should be an overall time-limit on Exemption F to discourage properties being left empty and exempt from Council Tax for an indefinite period?
- What do you consider is a reasonable period for obtaining probate or letters of administration?
- Which title do you think should replace the term 'severely mentally impaired'?
- Do you agree with the proposed definition to describe a person with a significant brain impairment or condition?
- Do you have any views on the qualifying criteria for a person with a significant brain impairment or condition to be entitled to an exemption or disregard?
- We would like to know your views on the effects that these proposals would have on the Welsh language, specifically on opportunities for people to use Welsh and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than English.
- What effects do you think there would be? How could positive effects be increased, or negative effects be mitigated?
- Please also explain how you believe the proposed policy approach could be formulated or changed so as to have positive effects or increased positive effects on opportunities for people to use the Welsh language and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than the English language, and no adverse effects on opportunities for people to use the Welsh language and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than the English language.
- We have asked a number of specific questions. If you have any related points which we have not specifically addressed, please use this space to record them.
